

NON-COMPETITION, non-solicitation, and confidentiality AGREEMENT

This NON-COMPETITION, NON-solicitation, and confidentiality AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into as of January 28, 2025 (date), by and between Fresh Prints, LLC ("Fresh Prints" or "Company") and Alyana Cabayao (the "Employee").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Fresh Prints has extended an offer of employment to Employee that is contingent upon execution of this non-competition, non-solicitation, and confidentiality agreement;

WHEREAS, during the course of Employee's employment with Fresh Prints or any of its successors, subsidiaries, assigns, related companies and divisions ("Company"), Employee acknowledges and agrees that he/she will have access to, or be acquiring, highly confidential and valuable information concerning the Company's legitimate business interests including, but not limited to, customer lists, price lists, promotional materials, methods of pricing, marketing and sales practices, trade secrets, methods of operation, and the needs of requirements of the Company's customers;

WHEREAS, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the above-referenced information and materials constitute valuable assets and legitimate business interests of the Company and which are deserving of stringent legal safeguards and protection;

WHEREAS, during the course of Employee's employment, Employee acknowledges and agrees that he/she may receive from the Company valuable, special, unique and extraordinary knowledge, experience and technical training and assistance that will place him/her in a position of confidence and trust with and will materially aid him/her in establishing and maintaining substantial relationships with specific prospective or existing customers of the Company;

WHEREAS, during the course of Employee's employment, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the support furnished to him/her by the Company will enable him/her to establish goodwill with the Company's customers, which is a valuable asset and legitimate business interest of the Company and deserving of stringent legal safeguards and protection;

NOW, THEREFORE, as an inducement to and in consideration of continued employment with the Company and the Company's compensating Employee for services and extending to him/her certain other employee benefits of a compensatory nature, but without any obligation on the Company's part to continue such employment, compensation or benefits for any specified period whatsoever, Employee agrees to protect, safeguard and maintain the integrity and confidentiality of the Company's valuable assets and legitimate business interests in accordance with the terms and conditions set as set forth below.

1. Recitals. The above recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein by reference for all purposes.

2. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. The parties hereto acknowledge that during the period in which Employee is employed by the Company (the "Employment Period"), Employee shall use, receive, conceive or develop Confidential Information (as that term is defined in paragraph 3 below). Employee covenants and agrees that during the Employment Period and at all times thereafter he/she shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Company, which consent shall be granted or denied at the Company's sole and absolute discretion, or except if acting solely for the benefit of the Company in connection with the Company's business and in accordance with the Company's business practices and policies, at any time, disclose, divulge, report, transfer or use, for any purposes whatsoever, any of such Confidential Information that has been used, received, conceived or developed by Employee. Employee also recognizes that such Confidential Information represents a valuable asset of the Company and is required to ensure the effective and successful conduct of the Company's business.

3. Confidential Information. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" shall mean all of the following materials and information that Employee uses, receives, conceives or develops or has used, received, conceived or developed, in whole or in part, in connection with Employee's employment with the Company. By way of illustration and not limitation, Company Information shall include the Company's trade secrets; research and development plans or projects; data and reports; computer materials such as software programs, instructions, source and object code, and printouts; products or prospective products, inventions, developments, and discoveries; data compilations, development databases; business improvements; business plans (whether pursued or not); ideas; budgets; unpublished financial statements; licenses; pricing strategy and cost data; information regarding the skills and compensation of employees of the Company; the personally-identifying and protected health information of employees of the Company; lists of current and potential customers; strategies, forecasts and other marketing information and techniques; employment and recruiting strategies and processes; sales practices, strategies, methods, forecasts, compensation plans, and other sales information; investor information; and the identities of the Company's suppliers, vendors, and contractors, and all information about those supplier, vendor and contractor relationships such as contact person(s), pricing and other terms. The definition of Company Information shall include both "know-how" (i.e., information about what works well) and "negative know-how" (i.e., information about what does not work well).

4. Use and Return of Confidential Information.

(a) Employee agrees that under no circumstance and at no time shall any of the Confidential Information be taken from the Company's premises and that under no circumstances and at no time shall any of the Confidential Information be duplicated, in whole or in part, without the express written permission of the President of the Company, which permission may be granted or denied in his/her sole and absolute discretion.

(b) Employee agrees that, upon termination of employment with Company, Employee shall return to Company all such Confidential Information, which is in Employee's possession regardless of the form in which any such materials are kept.

(c) Employee covenants and agrees that all right, title and interest in any Confidential Information shall be and shall remain the exclusive property of the Company. Employee agrees to promptly disclose to the Company all Confidential Information developed in whole or in part by Employee within the scope of this Agreement and to assign to the Company any right, title or interest Employee may have in such Confidential Information. Employee agrees to turn over to the Company all physical manifestations of the Confidential Information in his/her possession or under his/her control at the request of the Company.

5. Non-Solicitation. Employee agrees that during his/her employment with the Company and for a period of twenty-four (24) months following termination of Employee's employment with the Company for any reason whatsoever, whether such termination is voluntary or involuntary, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, do or suffer any of the following:

(i) Employ, assist in employing, recruit or otherwise associate in business with any present, former or future employee, officer or agent of the Company;

(ii) Induce or influence any person who is an employee, officer or agent of the Company, to terminate or divert said relationship; or

(iii) Solicit or attempt to solicit business of, do business with or perform any services for any customer, supplier or vendor or prospective customer, supplier or vendor of the Company or to otherwise interfere with any business relationship between the Company, on the one hand, and any other person or entity, on the other hand.

6. Covenant Not to Compete. Employee agrees that during his/her employment with the Company and for a period of twenty-four (24) months following termination of Employee's employment with the Company, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, own, manage, control or participate in the ownership, management or control of, or be employed or engaged by or otherwise affiliated or associated as a consultant, director, agent, independent contractor or otherwise with any other corporation, partnership, proprietorship, firm, association, or other business entity that is engaged in any manner in the business of Fresh Prints or provides services where such other business entity could utilize or gain a business advantage through the use Confidential Information, trade secrets, Employee's training by the Company, Employee's relationship with the Company's customers, suppliers or vendors or prospective customers, suppliers or vendors or the Company's goodwill. This term of months is known as the "restricted period." A termination "for cause" is defined as any good faith reason, such as a lack of capacity or diligence, failure to conform to the usual standards of conduct or policies, or other culpable or inappropriate behavior, as well as for reasons, in the Company's honest judgment, related to the needs of the business.

7. Reasonableness. Employee acknowledges that, in the course of his/her association with the Company, he/she will become acquainted with the methods of performing and promoting the Company's business and will acquire Confidential Information concerning the Company's that could be used to the detriment of the Company. Accordingly, the parties hereby agree that the period, scope and geographical areas of the restriction imposed upon Employee by the provisions of this Agreement are fair and reasonable and are reasonably required for the protection of the Company. Employee warrants and represents to the Company that his/her experience and capabilities are such that the provisions of this Agreements will not prevent him/her from earning a livelihood. In the event that any part of this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable or invalid, the remaining parts hereof shall nevertheless continue to be valid and enforceable as though the invalid portions were not a part hereof. In the event that the provisions of this Agreement relating to the area of restriction, the period of restriction, or the scope of restriction, shall be deemed to exceed the maximum area, period of time or scope which a court of competent jurisdiction would deem enforceable, said area, period of time and scope shall, for purposes of this Agreement, be deemed to be the maximum area or period of time or scope which a court of competent jurisdiction would deem valid and enforceable.

8. Inventions.

(a) The Employee shall promptly communicate and disclose in writing all inventions (whether or not patentable), suggestions, concepts, formats, arrangements, discoveries, developments, ideas, licenses, writings, designs, software (whether in source or object code form), patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets, know-how and patent, copyright and trademark applications which are made, conceived, developed or reduced to practice by the Employee alone, or jointly with others, whether or not during normal business hours, during the time of the Employee's employment with Fresh Prints, so long as they are within the scope of the Employee's employment with Fresh Prints or applicable or related in any way to the present or potential businesses, products or services of Fresh Prints, in each case as determined by Fresh Prints in its sole discretion (hereafter, collectively "Inventions"). Employee hereby assigns all of Employee's right, title and interest in all such Inventions to Fresh Prints, free and clear of any claims by the Employee of any character whatsoever, unless Fresh Prints notifies the Employee in writing that the Invention belongs to the Employee in whole or in part. Employee agrees that with respect to any Invention that may qualify as a "work made for hire" as defined in 17 U.S.C. §101, such Invention is and will be deemed a "work made for hire" and Fresh prints will have the sole right to the copyright (or, in the event that any such Invention does not qualify as a "work made for hire", the copyright and all other rights thereto will be assigned as above.

(b) As to such Inventions, upon request of Fresh Prints, the Employee shall: (i) execute all documents and provide all assistance necessary or proper to enable Fresh Prints to establish, record, perfect, transfer and defend title to such Inventions and to enable Fresh Prints to file and prosecute patent, copyright and trademark applications in the United States and any foreign country; and (ii) do all other things (including the giving of evidence in suits and proceedings) to obtain, maintain and assert patents, copyrights, trademarks or other rights in such Inventions.

9. Enforcement.

(a) Employee expressly agrees and understands that the remedy at law for any breach by Employee of this Agreement above will be inadequate and that damages flowing from such breach are not usually susceptible to being measured in monetary terms. Accordingly, it is acknowledged that upon Employee's violation of any provision of this Agreement, the Company shall be entitled to obtain from any court of competent jurisdiction (including without limitation state and federal courts in Delaware, where the Parties consent and shall not contest that venue shall be proper) immediate injunctive relief and obtain a temporary order and/or injunction restraining any threatened or further breach, as well as an equitable accounting of all profits or benefits arising out of such violation. Employee expressly waives any security that might otherwise be required in connection with such relief. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the Company's remedies at law or in equity for any breach by Employee of any of the provisions of this Agreement which may be pursued by the Company. Employee acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of this Agreement may be enforced by the Company or any successor or assign of the Company.

(b) In the event the Company applies to seal any papers produced or filed in any judicial proceedings to preserve confidentiality, Employee hereby specifically agrees not to oppose such application and to use Employee's best efforts to join such application.

(c) In addition to the remedies provided in subsection (a), Employee understands that in the event of a breach of this Agreement by Employee, (i) he or she shall become ineligible to receive any unpaid bonus payments pursuant to the Employer's bonus plans in effect at the time of the breach; (ii) any unexercised stock options and/or restricted stock awards (whether vested or not) received by Employee under a stock option or similar plan of Company shall be immediately cancelled; and (iii) he or she shall forfeit any other payment by the Company that has not been paid at the time of the breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee agrees that Company may also enforce the provisions relating to Employee after his/her termination from employment as described in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Agreement.

10. Consideration. Employee's continued employment and compensation is contingent upon, and shall serve as consideration for, this Agreement.

11. Tolling Period. In the event Employee shall violate any provision of this Agreement as to which there is a specific time period during which Employee is prohibited from taking certain actions or from engaging in certain activities, as set forth in such provision, then, such violation shall toll the running of such time period from the date of such violation until such violation shall cease.

12. Assignment and Enforceability. Employee expressly agrees that this Agreement shall be assignable by the Company to a successor to any of the businesses of the Company and Employee hereby expressly consents to such assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee's heirs, executors, administrators or other legal representatives or assigns. Employee also expressly agrees that this Agreement may be enforced by affiliates and/or subsidiaries of the Company.

13. Attorneys' Fees. If any legal action or other proceeding is brought by the Company for the enforcement of this Agreement, or because of an alleged dispute, breach, default or misrepresentation by Employee in connection with any provision of this Agreement, the Company if successful in such legal action or other proceeding, shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, sales and use taxes, court costs and all expenses even if not taxable as court costs (including, without limitation, all such fees, taxes, costs and expenses incident to arbitration, appellate, bankruptcy and post-judgment proceedings), incurred in that action or proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which the Company may be entitled. For purposes hereof, the Company shall be deemed the prevailing party notwithstanding any reduction of geographical location, period of time or scope of competitive activities pursuant to Sections 5 and/or 6 hereof. Attorneys' fees shall include, without limitation, paralegal fees, investigative fees, administrative costs, sales and use taxes and all other charges billed to the Company by its attorneys.

14. At-Will Employment. Employee acknowledges that this Agreement does not grant, imply, give or create any rights to employment by the Company and, unless otherwise provided in another writing, executed by an officer of the Company and Employee, Employee is free to resign at any time, for any reason or no reason, and, similarly, the Company is free to terminate Employee's employment at any time, for any or no reason.

15. Claims of Employee are Separate Matters. The existence of any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of the restrictive covenants set forth herein but shall be claimed and litigated separately.

16. Complete Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter covered; furthermore, this Agreement supersedes any and all prior written or oral agreements of the parties with respect to the subject matter covered, and cannot be modified except in writing, signed by both parties. The waiver by any party to this Agreement of a breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent or simultaneous breach.

17. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Waiver of Venue. This Agreement shall, for all purposes, be governed by, construed, controlled, interpreted and enforced in accordance with and under the laws of Delaware regardless of the fact that any of the parties hereto may be or may become a resident of a different county, state, or jurisdiction, and without regard to Delaware's choice of law rules.

18. Required Notice by Employee. Employee agrees that he/she shall notify any prospective employer of the existence and nature of this Agreement. If Employee fails to make this required disclosure, Employer shall have the right to provide such notice to Employee's future employer(s).

19. Right to Consult with Counsel. Employee acknowledges that he/she has the right to consult with counsel prior to signing this Agreement.

20. Acknowledgment. Employee acknowledges that he/she understands the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and has had adequate time to consider whether to agree to them and to consult a lawyer, if Employee wished to do so.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been duly signed on behalf of Company and by Employee as of the day and year first above written

Signed:  Employee Signature

By: Alyana Cabayao (Employee Name)

For Fresh Prints

Signed: _____

By: _____ (Name)

Its: _____ (Role)