Description of our team

We are crazy about our customers and team members and would jump out of a plane (with a parachute) if we had to for every single person who makes up this family. In that spirit, we're looking for people who want to be a part of this family rather than people who are just looking for their next job.

To us, that means we want someone who takes our mission of building and supporting student entrepreneurship to heart. Here are some of the values that are really important to us:

- Produce extremely high-quality work simply because we enjoy producing good work
- Be irrationally passionate about the things you do
- Foster a culture with a good sense of humor
- Blur the lines between social life and work life
- Be really demanding, but really fair
- Challenge everything
- Encourage logical experimentation

We set a really high bar for ourselves and look for people who want to push the limit. Joining Fresh Prints isn't for everyone. We expect a lot, and are very honest about that. This is really only a good fit for people who really love challenges and thrive in an environment where extremely high performance is the expectation. It's important you take that very seriously and make sure you're that type of person before accepting.
